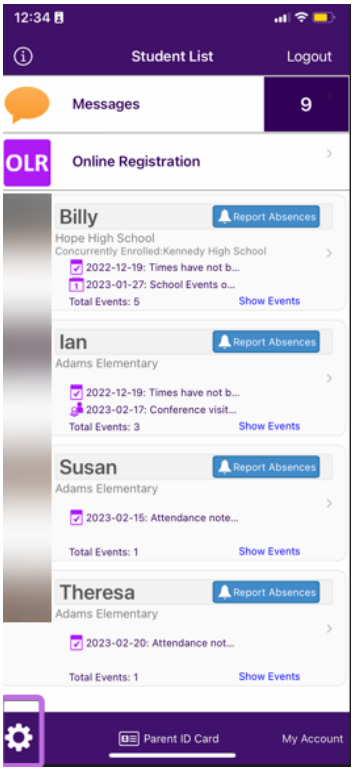
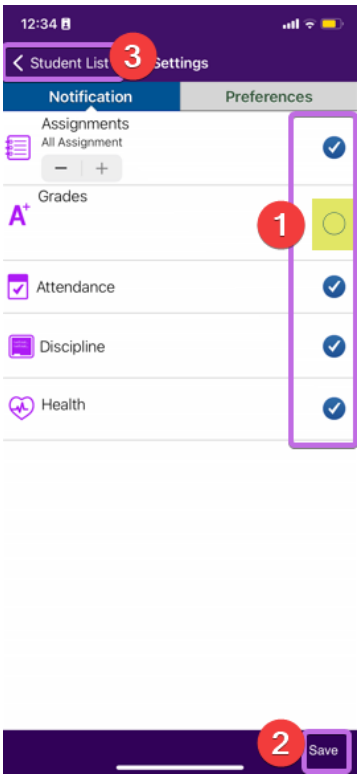
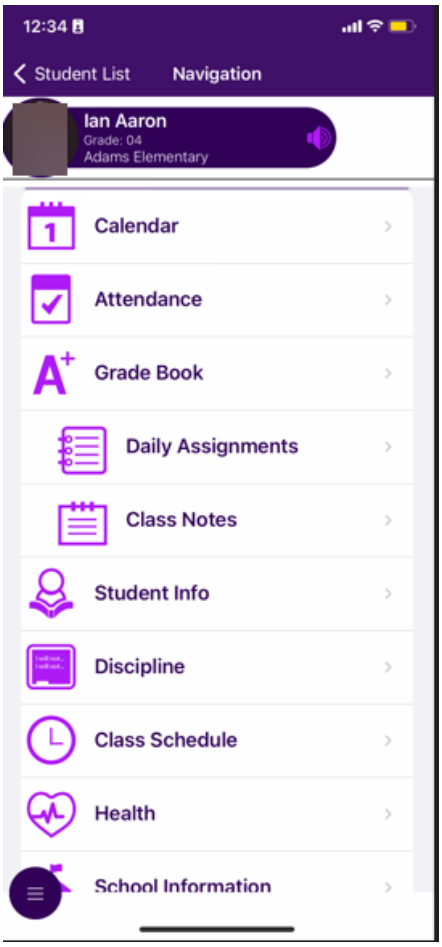
On the Student List screen, select the Settings gear icon.



Opt into the desired Push Notification type and then select Save before going back to the Student List.





After going back to the Student List, you must click on the student you want to receive notifications for. Then, you are considered as opted in to the notifications.